Community Interpretation Services

Lutheran Family Services of Nebraska (LFS) interpreters serve as language and cultural brokers for new populations with limited English proficiency. Global Language Solutions (GLS) interpreters often come from the communities they serve, and have experienced the challenges of learning a new culture and navigating through linguistic barriers.

Testimonials

“I’ve utilized interpreter services through Lutheran Family Services with clients. The staff have always been responsive to the client’s needs and do a great job of staying in touch with case managers. I’m greatly appreciative of the services they offer to our families in the Omaha Metro area!”

– Dawn Baker, Family Permanency Specialist
Nebraska Families Collaborative

“Lutheran Family Services has been phenomenal! Not only are the interpreters very professional, on time, and courteous, but so is their program coordinator. Lutheran Family Services is always my go-to service provider if I need an interpreter.”

– Taylor Daniel, Case Manager ResCare Workforce Services
NDHHS Employment First Division
